Hi Lorena
I double check the math.
1 trolley for 4 months at 4500 =$18,000.00

$18,000.00 \times 2 = $36,000.00$

Please let me know if there is an error I missed.

Teddi,

Please review the math under #3 lease rates. The total does not add up.

Thanks.

Teddi,

I was waiting for a revised agreement based on our discussion. We do plan on signing the lease.

Also, can you please confirm that the maintenance items the mechanics discussed have been completed? (or will be completed prior to us taking deliver?)

I look forward to receiving the revised agreement. It will take a few more weeks before we finalize things on our end.

Also, we want to partially wrap the vehicles. I forgot to measure the height of the two areas there is writing on the side of the vehicle. We want to prepare having them wrapped prior to their arrival.

Best regards,

Hi Lorena,

Can we agree on 2500.00 coverage for mechanical issue on your part and we will cover the rest. And if we are not able to furnish a working trolley to you in 36 hours will terminate the contract.

Let me know if this works for you and I can resend the lease.

Teddi,

I need to have the trolley maintenance records by the end of day tomorrow.

I have some changes to the contract that I need to discuss with you.

We have two mechanics scheduled to drive out there on 3/22/16. I need to arrange the details of that visit.

Please contact me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you.
